SUNDAY MAY 1, 2016

4 PM FORUM: "Fellowship By the Numbers" is an honest and open discussion about Muslim opinions and demographics. Narrated by Raheel Raza, President of Muslims facing Tomorrow. This short film is about the acceptance that radical Islam is a bigger problem than most politically correct governments and individuals are ready to admit. The film addresses the questions: Is ISIS, the Islamic State, trying to penetrate the US with the refugee influx? Are Muslims radicalized on U.S. soil? Are organizations such as CAIR, who purport to represent American Muslims, accepting and liberal or radicalized with links to terror organizations. Film from Dec 2015. Discussion Lead by Glenn Donnahoe

5 PM Greeting and refreshments

5:30PM SERVICE Topic: "The Silent Revolution" TED talk by Raheel Raza. In a time where interfaith and cultural and religious diversity are scrutinized and need support, Raheel Raza is a force to be reckoned with. Her outspoken and strong opinions on Muslim society and Islamic beliefs have been ground breaking and inspiring; however, others consider them to be a source of criticism and condemnation. Yet Raza remains undeterred in her fight against gender prejudices and her mission to improve the female position in Islamic society continues.

SUNDAY, MAY 8, 2016 Mother's Day

5 PM Greeting & Refreshments

5:30PM SERVICE: "Jesus Christ: Rebel with a Cause (Part 2)" by Rev. Michael Thompson. Our primary sources of information about Jesus Christ are the New Testament gospels. But other sources do exist, such as the writings of Josephus, a first-century Jewish historian. What he had to say about Jesus will probably surprise you.

Followed by Potluck dinner

TUESDAY MAY 10 & 24th. NO JOURNALING this month
